

Ministry of Defence

Finance Director HQ Sutton Coldfield £80,000 + Benefits

The Organisation:

As one of the largest landowners in the UK, Defence Estates spends over £1bn a year on its property portfolio. The defence estate covers some 240,000 hectares over 4,000 sites in the UK and also includes significant sites in Germany, Cyprus and the Falkland Islands.

The size and enormous importance of the organisation's responsibilities make this both a publicly and politically high profile organisation.

The Role:

As Finance Director you will be an Executive Board member providing professional financial expertise and support. Financial responsibilities include; managing direct costs of £1.5bn and assets of £14bn, financial planning, reporting and control, advising the board on key financial initiatives.

As importantly, you will, as an executive board member, provide strategic direction supporting and promoting the organisation's aim of developing new and better ways of managing the estate. You will also have executive responsibility for the IS and Security business groups.

You should be professionally qualified (CCAB) with a minimum of 5 years' senior finance experience in either the public or private sectors.

You will be a strategic thinker, able to move outside the financial sphere to contribute to the development of broader objectives. A knowledge of the property/construction industry is desirable.
